

Cu Van Ha

Cu Van Ha is a publisher of magazines & books. He was born in Vietnam and at the age of 2 moved to Niagara Falls, Ont. Cu studied design & media at Carleton University's School of Architecture and graduated when he was 22. In that same year, Cu founded Mirror Magazine, promoting young designers & artists. One year later, Cu produced Capital Menu, a comprehensive award-winning restaurant dining guide and its online version capitalmenu.com.

Two years ago, Cu launched Preston Catalogue, his most successful publication to date. It is an upscale, fine arts, fashion, dining & design catalogue published in a glamorous & glossy format. Preston Catalogue is distributed through Chapters & independent magazine retailers across the country.

Because of its top-notch design & style, Preston Catalogue is now one of the major media sponsors of L'Oreal Fashion Week in Toronto. Taking place every spring & fall, it is internationally recognized and broadcast around the world to a global audience.
